

Tim specializes in patent law at Carlson Caspers, dedicating the majority of his time to handling patent disputes. His practice encompasses all phases of patent litigation, including proceedings in Federal District Court and the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. He also handles disputes in informal forums such as mediation and arbitration.

Tim also has experience in counseling clients regarding potential patent disputes, conducting infringement and validity studies, and assisting clients in developing business plans for their patent portfolio.

Best Lawyers® has consistently listed Tim in the annual edition of Best Lawyers in America since 2007.

Before entering private practice, Tim clerked for the Honorable S. Jay Plager at the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.
